

Ancestors Revealed

Professional Genealogy Services

Genealogy Presentation: A Step by Step Guide to Finding Your Ancestors

Discover your family history with this fun and interesting presentation.

This presentation covers:

- tools available for genealogy research, onsite and online
- how to keep your information organized
- how to review your finds to fill in gaps and gather more interesting details

Tips for locating:

- Census Records
- Birth, Death & Marriage Records
- Cemetery Records
- Obituaries
- Church Records
- Local Histories & Biographies
- Naturalization & Immigration Information
- Military Records

Recommendations

"Thank you for your presentation, which was informative and lively. I had the best time! We still talk about the things we learned from you and how helpful you recommend you highly." Mary, CT

About the Presenter

Beth Mariotti, Genealogist

Beth Mariotti is a professional genealogist, specializing in colonial New England and New York immigration research. Based in Branford, CT, Beth has completed many full scale genealogy projects as well as locating individual documents to further clients own research. She preserves old documents and photos, using them to create family heirloom books. Beth especially enjoys lending historical context to genealogy research.

Professional Affiliations:
Connecticut Professional Genealogists Council
Association of Professional Genealogists
Connecticut Society of Genealogists
New England Historic Genealogical Society

Did You Know?

- Time Magazine reported genealogy as one of the four most popular activities on the internet in 1999.
- The FamilySearch Web site of the Family History Library gets six to seven million hits per day.
- Ancestry.com members have posted over 11 million family trees on the site.

Contact Information:

Beth Mariotti, Genealogist

E-Mail:
Beth@AncestorsRevealed.com

Phone:
(203)-530-6456

Address:
29 Howard Avenue
Branford, CT 06405

Website:
www.AncestorsRevealed.com